

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Court goes on.

Mushrooms are plenty.

Candidates are increasing.

Have we a Board of Health?

Must our people be smothered by a combination of poisonous stinks?

Saturday last looked like business again in Eaton.

Another township heard from and another candidate for Auditor. Cards.

One more candidate for Treasurer "turned up" last week. No cards.

Preble county beats all-hail for "sacrificing" patriots!

J. DUBBIN WARD was in the Eaton Courts last week.

When you come to town have your button holes well secured.

The wool crop is about all gathered.

We have had pleasant weather for the past week.

The Churches were well attended last Sabbath.

Out door courtship is now fashionable.

If you want an office make your bid.

The "judicious and capable statesman" still tarries at Long Branch.

Batter is soft now. Money hard to get.

Street corner and store box politicians are winding up for a "run."

Many who won't take the Democrat because it is a wicked paper, hunt around and borrow it regularly.

Judge Kink has made a purchase of the property heretofore owned by JOSHUA CAMPBELL.

Subscribers are being added daily to our already large list, and still there is room for more. Bring them along.

Belshazzar's writing on the wall is not a patching of some of the MSS received at this office.

The JEFFERSONIAN, of Cambridge, Ohio, advertises "Naked and trimmed ladies' hats."

The sprinkler commenced its work on Monday. It will be a good institution when it gets dry enough.

One of the Monmouth's "shake ups" beats old Erie's all to pieces. Try it.

The temperance business will be very poor now until after the election. In fact, it has entirely suspended in Eaton.

How many cases of Typhoid Fever must occur before the Board of Health will feel justified in abating the nuisances in our town?

The slaughter of candidates for Treasurer in the Radical Ring Convention will be sad and fearful; it will be mournful!

The County Commissioners, with laudable promptitude have decreed the overthrow of the court yard stink factory.

Last year the REGISTER was a red hot crusade paper. This year it says to take a drink occasionally, is respectable.

Everybody, says to everybody, "did anybody ever see such a June as this?" Then everybody says, "no, nobody ever did."

Have we a Mayor and City Council? If so, have they any power to regulate the sanitary condition of the municipality?

Our obliging County Treasurer gives you a little time to pay your taxes without the penalty. Go and do it.

The annual picnic of St. Patrick's Church, will be held at the Fair Grounds, on next Saturday. Everybody is invited.

We have thirteen first-class stink factories on three blocks in the center of the town, and the evening zephyrs are heavy with their balmy odors.

It is amusing to see a boy stub his toe against the corner of a raised brick and then hop along on one foot for a couple of rods muttering something that he didn't learn at Sunday school.

The following new names have been added to our subscription books since our last:—Hugh Gard, L. G. Stonery, Jos. Asay, D. R. Miller, Jacob Christner.

The poor farmer! The time of his affliction and persecution is at hand. The reaper, the lightning rod, and the bugs attack him in front, in the flank and in the rear.

The Strawberry Festival of the Baptist Church, given at the Doty House last week, was well attended and the occasion of much social happiness.

We do not need money. Our subscribers who owe us will please keep the amounts due us in their pockets. We like to have money out, it is a sign of prosperity.

Don't forget the time of holding our County Fair has been changed one week earlier than last year. It will open on Tuesday, the 21st of September, instead of the 28th.

A fellow bought a quart of whisky in Eaton the other day for a sick horse. He tested it thoroughly himself before he would risk giving it to the horse.

Candidates for county offices are looming up in every direction, the Democrats have got their ticket fixed.—REGISTER.

Isn't that so? Usht sich vunderful name dat Daton feller ish!

Eve must have been a very unhappy woman. There was no other woman to pass her on the street that she might look around and see how that dress fit in the back. Poor Eve!

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

The Court of Common Pleas, for the June Term, 1875, convened on Monday morning, June 14th, Judge HENK on the bench, and the other officers of the Court in their places.

The Grand Jurors were sworn, charged and retired. After a session of two days they reported six indictments, as follows:

Caldwell G. P. Austin.—Manslaughter.

Ellas and Peter Davis.—Assault and battery.

Jas. Marshall.—Assault and battery.

John Crisman.—Assault and battery.

William Crisman and Wesley Johnson.—Petit larceny.

They reported that they had examined 26 witnesses. That they had visited the jail. They recommended more air and light for prisoners, and rules and regulations for the government of the jail.

Caldwell G. P. Austin appeared and renewed his recognizance for his appearance from day to day.

On the civil docket the following business was disposed of as indicated:

Olas vs. Mox.—In partition. Sale confirmed and distribution ordered.

R. E. Wilson, Guard n. al., ex parte.

In partition. Papers filed and partition ordered.

A. Cline vs. T. Brumbaugh.—Discontinued.

J. R. Clawson vs. Ann Clawson.—Continued.

Bing Bros. & Co., vs. Berry.—Continued.

McCrillis vs. Black.—Continued.

Israel Sner vs. Wash. Bruce.—Tried to jury. Verdict for defendant. Motion for new trial overruled. Exceptions saved and bill of exceptions signed.

Dennis Lewellen was appointed as Bailiff for the term.

E. Reed vs. Sam'l Hull, et al.—Sale of mortgaged premises confirmed and money ordered to be distributed.

Ruey McKinney vs. Orth Long, et al.—Several new parties waived service and entered their appearance in this case.

E. S. Scott vs. Henry Smith.—Default entered up. Leave to file petition by July 1.

Charles Foutz vs. B. N. & D. M. Fleming.—Judgment by consent, $225.00.

Stay of execution till Nov. 1.

Mills, et al., Trustees, vs. Bratt.—Discontinued at defendant's cost.

P. Maloy vs. Fee.—Continued.

McKinney vs. Berry, et al.—Continued.

More vs. Stubbs, et al.—Continued.

Boiswick vs. Shaw.—Dismissed.

Dennis Lewellen vs. D. M. Fleming.—Action for slander. Tried to jury—verdict for plaintiff, $3000. This case was tried once before and the plaintiff got a verdict for $2000. The defendant was not satisfied and took the case up on error, and got a new trial, which resulted as above.

Miami Valley Savings Society vs. T. Potter, et al.—Continued.

Pray vs. Pray.—Dismissed.

Rogers vs. Rogers.—Dismissed.

Krug vs. Townsend, Sheriff.—Dismissed.

Quinn, Adm'r vs. Blackford, et al.—Sale confirmed and distribution ordered.

Chadwick vs. Marshall.—Dismissed at plaintiff's cost.

A considerable portion of the time was occupied in hearing matters growing out of the building of the West Alexandria school house, which have not yet been decided.

The probability is that the term will be a dull one. Farmers prefer their farms to the Court House, and let their suits stand continued.

There will be no Court on Thursday, the 24th, on account of the Masonic Celebration.

Excursion!

Two special coaches under the management of J. A. McCann, will convey a select excursion party to Cincinnati on the regular Chicago Express, Sunday, July 4th, leaving Cincinnati at 6:58 a. m.; return, leaving Cincinnati at 7 p. m. Quite a number of young married persons will accompany the party, and all young men who desire to go we would suggest they accompany some lady friend. No person in the habit of getting intoxicated can procure tickets. Only one hundred tickets will be sold, so that all parties holding tickets will enjoy a comfortable seat. Tickets can be procured of Mr. McCann from June 28th to July 2d.

The Best's Portable Gas Works at Fisher's Grocery, is one of the finest machines now in the country. It is made from galvanized iron, by any practical Tinner, and the price of the apparatus is very cheap. It gives a beautiful light. This week they will use the organ burners and globes and the common gasoline oil. There is a good chance for some man who would make money by purchasing the country right, as everybody will soon want gas. W. R. Ross is disposing of counties and taking orders for machines.

An Ice Cream and Strawberry Festival will be given by the ladies of the Christian Church, at the City Hall, next Friday and Saturday evenings. Come.

Sunday School.

The Rev. A. J. Reynolds (Presbyterian minister), will preach in Duggins' school house next Sunday afternoon at half past 3 o'clock. Sunday School at 3.

EATON MARKETS.

Wheat, per bush 1.10
Corn, per bush .90
Oats, per bush .75
Timothy-seed, per bush .60
Flax-seed, per bush .50

The Fourth of July.

There will be a reunion of the 22d O. V. I. in Eaton on Saturday, July 3d. All members of the Regiment are invited to attend.

C. C. NELSON, T. A. FOLLO, W. M. NEWCOMB, Com.

MARRIED.

BRESHER—HORRIGAN—On Thursday, June 17th, by Rev. A. J. Reynolds, Mr. John A. Breshier, to Miss Bridget Mary Horrigan.

16 Beautiful Building Lots

—AT—PUBLIC AUCTION!

WE will offer at public auction, On Thursday, July 15, 1875, 16 Splendid Building Lots, Situated on Barron and Beech streets. These Lots, all of them high and dry, and will require no grading or filling up, being on the highest ground in the town. They will be sold to the highest bidder, on easy terms, one-fourth cash, balance in one, two and three years, with 6 per cent. interest. A good chance to buy a home on easy terms.

JOHN T. DEEM, S. H. HUBBELL, Eaton, June 24, 1875.

Worth its Weight in Gold!

Undoubtedly the greatest modern discovery in medicine is Dr. A. A. Churchill's Radical Cure for Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Constipation, Biliousness, Loss of Appetite, distress after eating and all disorders caused by indigestion or a deranged liver. Its results are astonishing, and sure relief is guaranteed in every case where it is faithfully used. It tones up the stomach, regulates the liver, restores the natural appetite, strengthens the delicate, and expels all morbid humors from the system. Typhoid and Bilious fever might in almost every case be prevented by its timely use. A few very doses will relieve, and a little more will cure you. Sold by MEDICAL & SONS, June 10, 1875.

Persons contemplating the purchase of that portion of the Doty House which is advertised for sale June 28, can, if they so desire, afterwards purchase of me a controlling interest in the Hotel. The Hotel will rent for one thousand a year, and is a safe and very profitable investment on ten thousand dollars.

WILLIAM NEWCOMB, June 17, 1875.

Dr. A. A. Churchill, Surgeon Dentist, EATON, OHIO.

HAVING permanently located a Dental Office in this place, is now prepared to do all kinds of first-class work on short notice. All work warranted to give satisfaction. Office on Barron St., over Rossman & Hambridge's bakery. Eaton, June 24, 1875.

INSURANCE.

STATE OF OHIO, Insurance Dept., COLUMBUS, Feb. 15, 1875.

WHEREAS, THE PENN. MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO. OF PHILADELPHIA, has filed in this office a statement of its capital, assets, liabilities, and business, and has caused to be published in the State of Ohio, a notice of its incorporation, and of the laws governing its business, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State, and of the rights of its policyholders, and of the duties of its officers and directors, and of the powers of its courts and tribunals, and of the remedies available to its policyholders, and of the penalties provided for its officers and directors, and of the consequences of its non-compliance with the laws of this State